Knights of Columbus

Established in 1897

Brother Knights, Family Members, Readers, Friends

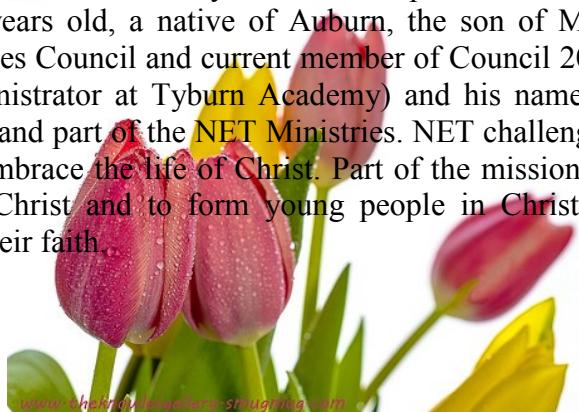

We begin April with better weather. Though signs of winter linger, spring is here to stay. Spring also brings with it the 2nd quarter and a continuation of our busy season at the Knights.

Activities continue to remain strong. Our gross revenue as well as margin contributions are in line with budget expectations. Preliminary results from the 1st quarter project a better than budget performance in gross vs expense %. Every % of improvement adds to our bottom line and enhances our ability to “Give Back” to our community. Additional and more specific financial results are discussed at each monthly Council meeting.

Spring is also the close of the Lenten season when we do something for the least. When we fast, give up dessert and go to Mass more often. It also means being more honest in our dealings with others. No lies, no gossip, no holding grudges. We help to feed and cloth the needy. Care for the ill and visit the homebound. We truly sacrifice and do something for the least. Spring also brings Easter. Easter brings life after death and sacrifice. New life. Trees, plants, grass, fields turn green and explode with life. Yes, the Easter Bunny, candy, parades, Syracuse Lacrosse, longer days, sunshine, major league baseball and a sense of relief that winter is finally over. More importantly Spring brings forth our own spiritual awakening after a season of sacrifice and giving. Let us carry on with our spiritual awakening not only during spring but throughout the year.

This spring our Family was also blessed with the ability to spend some time in Florida. We were able to again attend Mass at St John the Evangelist Catholic Church and participate in some of the Church activities. St. Johns has several thousand parishioners, a weekly (in season) collection of approximately $60,000, a new $15 million youth center, 3 permanent and 2 assistant priests serving 8 Sunday Masses and 3 daily Masses and yes a Knights of Columbus Council #11281 at 200 members. I along with Jim Solomon from council 207 attended one of their monthly Council meetings. Council members were anxious to hear about Council 207, our operations and activities and our Ladies Auxiliary. We all learned from one another.

I was also made aware of a young individual currently at St. John's that was bringing forth the Catholic Spirit to the youth of the community but also the spirit of our own hometown Auburn, NY. He is 19 years old, a native of Auburn, the son of Matt Fallon (Past Grand Knight of St Frances Council and current member of Council 207) and Ann Fallon (a teacher and administrator at Tyburn Academy) and his name is (Matt) Paul Fallon. Paul is associated and part of the NET Ministries. NET challenges young Catholics to love Christ and embrace the life of Christ. Part of the mission of NET is to proclaim the Gospel of Christ and to form young people in Christian Character thru study and practice of their faith.

I was able to spend some time with Paul, who is taking time off from his educational pursuits to give back to local Catholic youth communities in this case here in Florida. Paul is dedicated, devout and committed to his mission. A truly remarkable , well rounded and overall nice guy. It was a pleasure to meet with him and learn about his mission. Congratulations also to Matt and Ann for raising such an outstanding individual. Says a lot about your Family.

Before closing I would also like to make all aware of the following. It is with sadness as well as joy that I am advising all that I will not be seeking re election to the position of Grand Knight for an additional term during the June elections. Sadness comes in the form of missing all the day to day activities of the Knights that have become so much a part of my and my Families life. Joy comes in the form of being part of the Greatest Council of all, Council 207 and transitioning over the duties and responsibilities of Council 207, to our new Grand Knight leader. Please also know that I will run for the office of Trustee and will always be there in support of the needs of Council 207. More to come as a follow up in future newsletters.

NOTE: Reminder - elections for open positions for Council 207 and Home Corp. will take place prior to our June Council meeting on Thursday June 27, 2019. Election ballots will be posted in the May Newsletter as well as at Council.

In closing a reminder that our faith is about new beginnings and giving not only during the Easter Season but all year long.

Fraternally,

Jack

We call that peace of mind, and that's what we offer with our every product in our portfolio.

We guarantee the cash value in your whole life policies will be there.

We guarantee the rates on your term insurance.

We guarantee our retirement products will provide a stream of income when you need it.

On top of those product guarantees, I guarantee that I will offer professional, high-quality service that you would expect from our organization.

Our Order is among the highest rated life insurers in North America. The Knights of Columbus has over 40 years of Superior Ratings from AM Best. This shows our track record for excellence and security.

I would suggest that a principal reason that we were able to achieve those accolades is because we remain steadfastly committed to the vision of Father Michael J. McGivney by providing life insurance by brother Knights for brother Knights.

That commitment is an essential core value of the Knights of Columbus, and our core values permeate all levels of our organization. These principles for marketing are summed up by our Golden Rule: “In all my professional relationships, I pledge myself to the following rule of conduct: I shall, in light of all conditions surrounding those I serve, render that service which, under the same circumstances, I would apply to myself.”

Let's talk soon to discuss how our products can bring that peace of mind to you and your family.

Statue in front of St. John the Evangelist Church in Naples, Florida Dedicated to service men and woman

For Our Service Men & Women

Dear Lord, we thank you for the lives and service of our men and women in the Armed Forces. Strengthen them and give them guidance as they stand in harm's way to protect our nation and way of life. May they face each day of service in the same way Your Son Jesus did; with courage, dignity, and faith. And if it is your will when their work is through, bring them safely home. Lord, please also bless the families of our troops. Reward them generously for their sacrifices which are known only to You. May we never forget those who paid the ultimate price for our freedom and safety: those that have died in the service of our country. May they rest in peace forever with you in your Kingdom. Amen. In Honor to All Who Have Served.

April 2019 Virtue of the Month

JUSTICE

Maura DelFavero, Principle of Tyburn Academy

Justice is the upholding and implementation of the law, impartiality, and fairness; it is getting what one deserves or giving to others what they deserve. It is a derivative of the Latin word iustitia. Justice is one of the four Cardinal Virtues: prudence, justice, temperance, and fortitude: the virtues which form the “hinges,” cardones in Latin, of a virtuous life. Plato listed these four virtues in the fourth book of his Republic; they are also known as the Pagan virtues because they are found to be honored in every great civilization, even polytheist ones. Words for these virtues may be found in every language, a sure sign of their universal applicability to human nature. St. Ambrose likens these Cardinal Virtues, including justice, to the four rivers of Paradise; Phison, Gihon, Tigris, and Euphrates, in his great work On Paradise. God’s Wisdom, the Logos, is the fountain of these virtues in the soul just as He created those rivers in Eden out of nothing. The Archangel Michael holds the scales symbolizing God’s justice in traditional iconography.

In the Old Covenant in the Old Testament Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Lot, Job, Ruth, and King Josiah are just before God; they give God His due and their fellow human beings theirs. In the New Covenant, which centers around Jesus the “Anointed One,” the “Just Man,” the “Upright Man,” and the Speaker of the Psalms through the Holy Spirit who suffers for the unrighteous and the wicked who murder him; the psalm he chants on the cross beginning “O Lord, why has Thou forsaken me?” ends in triumph and includes a very particular prophecy of men casting lots for his garments. Joseph is a truly just man and he, fittingly in the beginning of the Gospel Narrative, is described as being a just man for ignoring the letter of the Mosaic Law, which prescribed punishment for women like the Ever-Virgin Mary and Mother of God found with child before their marriage in the first chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew. So, too, with Joseph of Arimathea, the Centurion Cornelius whose “prayers and alms” were pleasing to God, Zacharias, his son St. John the Baptist, and Simeon the “just and devout.”

Justice is one of the attributes of the saints from ancient unto modern times: we all know, deep down, that St. Anthony of the Desert did not cheat and that Mother Teresa did not steal. A holy Eastern Monastic Elder named Paisios further distinguishes between Divine Justice and Human Justice. Divine Justice means forgiving injuries even before being asked and giving others better than they deserve. Divine Justice corresponds with the exalted, supernatural, teaching of the Gospel that one ought to love God and one’s neighbor, which are indeed to be found in the Pentateuch but bound up in extremely specific regulations, and human justice to the lex talionis or “an eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth” of the Mosaic Law as practiced by the Pharisees. Injustice, especially the oppression of the weak, the poor, and helpless by the wealthy and the strong, calls out to God for correction (c.f. the Book of Proverbs).

Holy Father's Prayer Intention

As always, thanks for your continued support, loyalty and patronage of Council 207 in 2019. Our Brothers as well as Ladies Auxiliary and their guests are truly making a difference thru your participation, support and attendance at the Knights.

Our March gross receipts MTD are in line with our budget expectations. March 2019 $'s were higher vs March 2018 at approximately +5%. Our March margin % was the best YTD. We will provide a quarterly cost analysis comparison vs last year in the May newsletter.

A guest bartender sheet has been posted for Sundays. Guest bartenders are on from 12:00-2:00 and promise to bring special food for all to enjoy. Please take the time to sign up. Guest bartenders schedules run thru June.
