A Message from the Grand Knight:

Dear Brothers,

The month of December brings upon us the Christmas Season. Christmas holds a special significance for the Knights of Columbus, Council 207, as a time to embody the virtues of charity and community that lie at the heart of our mission. Through our annual Christmas Appeal, we are raising vital funds to support those in need, ensuring that no one is left without hope or joy during this blessed season. The money we raise is used to provide for families and individuals within our community who need it the most, allowing them to celebrate Christmas with dignity and love. It is our heartfelt goal to ensure that everyone, regardless of their circumstances, can enjoy the warmth of the season surrounded by their loved ones. Together, we honor the true spirit of Christmas by bringing light to those who need it most.

Please remember to keep Christ in Christmas
