A Message from the Grand Knight:

Dear Brothers,

The month of March ushers in a renewal of life, as the cold grip of winter gives way to the warmth of spring, bringing longer days, blossoming flowers, and a sense of rejuvenation. This season of renewal also holds special significance for Knights of Columbus, Council 207, as we celebrate St. Patrick's Day, honoring the patron saint of Ireland and a symbol of faith, perseverance, and evangelization. St. Patrick's mission to spread Christianity throughout Ireland aligns with the Knights' core values of charity, unity, and fraternity. His legacy serves as a reminder of our commitment to service, faith, and community, inspiring us to continue our charitable works and spiritual growth as we embrace the promise of a new season.

OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.
